THE GOLDEN OLDIES

are a mobile, interactive and comical mask theatre act, specifically tailored for a wide array of festivals and events. The Golden Oldies are the quintessential elderly folk from a bygone era! Recently escaped from the local respite home, equipped with zimmer frames and knitting needles -coupled with old show tunes - this format table trio of friends bring hilarity to all in sundry.

The perfect entertainment choice if you're looking to bring some nostalgia to your event. Our Oldies are guaranteed to delight and amuse guests creating fits of laughter wherever they appear. This unforgettable visual act is certain to leave a long-lasting snapshot in the memory of your guests - just what you need for your event!

"Just wanted to say a HUGE congrats. What a lovely, beautiful piece of work you have created, particularly over this last 4 week period. I thought it was just gorgeous and the artistry of all the performers was brilliant. We have nothing like this on our stages, so I sincerely hope this work keeps going and thousands and thousands of people and little people get to experience this show."

Please Note: This act is available either as a Roving Act or as a work of Visual Interactive Installation Theatre.
